Respondent/JD exparte vide order Dt.11.06.2024.

Order

A complaint (AdC No.0012 of 2023) titled as Deepti Mahajan Vs Bajwa Developers Limited., was filed before the then Adjudicating Officer (RERA Pb.) under Section 31 of the Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Act 2016 (hereinafter referred to as the Act). This complaint was partly allowed by the said officer vide order dated 29.11.2023, in favour of complainant, to the effect that she was entitled to recover compensation on account of mental agony of Rs.40,000/-, compensation on account of litigation expenses of Rs.10,000/- and compensation on account of unfinished construction of the flat in question of Rs.1,01,600/- (Total Rs.1,51,600/-), to be recovered from the respondent, within ninety days from the date of the said order.

2. Above said order dated 29.11.2023 was passed in the presence of both the parties, including the representative of the respondent and the same has become final. But the respondent did not make the payment to the complainant, as per the said order. Hence, this execution application filed by decree holder Deepti Mahajan against the judgment debtor.

3. Since there was no stay order passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal/Higher Court/Forum/Authority, with regard to the operation of the said order dated 29.11.2023, so as per said order, Recovery Certificate was issued by this Bench to the District Collector, SAS Nagar Mohali, for recovery of the due amount from the respondent, as arrears of land revenue, as per provisions of the Act. List of property of the respondent, attached with this execution application was also sent to the said office of District Collector.

4. Perusal of the case in hand shows that reminders have been issued thereafter, to the office of District Collector, SAS Nagar Mohali for affecting recovery in this case, but of no use. It is pertinent to mention here that recovery in this has to be affected as arrears of land revenue.

5. Heard. Now question arises as to which is the proper Office/Forum/Authority competent to affect recovery in this case by way of arrears of the land revenue?. The answer is given in Section 40 (1) of the Act and Rule 24 of the Punjab State Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Rules 2017 (hereinafter referred to as the Rules), which are reproduced as under:-

Sec.40. Recovery of interest or penalty or compensation and enforcement of order, etc.

(1) If a promoter or an allottee or a real estate agent, as the case may be, fails to pay any interest or penalty or compensation imposed on him, by the adjudicating officer or the Regulatory Authority or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, under this Act or the rules and regulations made thereunder, it shall be recoverable from such promoter or allottee or real estate agent, in such manner as may be prescribed as an arrears of land revenue.

Rule 24. Recovery of interest, penalty and compensation. [Sections 40(1) and 84(2)(r)- The recovery of the amount due such as interest, penalty or compensation shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue in the manner provided under applicable local laws.

Local law in Punjab for affecting recovery of amount as arrears of land revenue is The Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887. Sections 61 to 96 of this Act deal with the "collection of land revenue", whereas Section 67 of this Act specifically deals with the process for recovery of arrears of land revenue.

Perusal of record further shows that Project of the respondent falls within the revenue limits of District SAS Nagar, (Mohali) Pb. As per provisions of Section 40 (1) of the Act and Rule 24 of the Rules, coupled with the provisions of Punjab Land Revenue Act 1887 and other relevant law/rules, it is the concerned District Collector, who is competent to affect the recovery in the case in hand as arrears of land revenue, from the respondent/JD, as per the said order dated 29.11.2023 passed by the Adjudicating Officer. Execution/AO/26/2021 in complaint No.TR/AO/52/2019 in GC No.1178/2019, to the effect that the execution has to be decided within 60 days. The directions had been issued on the basis of guidelines of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal Nos.1659-1660 of 2021 (Special Leave to Appeal Nos.7965-7966/2020) and therefore, all efforts have to be made for realization of the due amount by all means.
